2012 San Diego Wellness and Recovery Summit:

Wednesday March 28, 2012 9:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m.

This year's theme is "Everyone Counts".
The presentations will focus on suicide prevention and recognizing the value, importance and contribution of every individual.

Continental breakfast and lunch are included. Winners of the "This Person Award" will be honored. These awards recognize and show appreciation for the continuous support provided by the people who encouraged individuals in recovery by showing their love and never ending belief in their strengths and abilities!

- How to nominate your "This Person": *send in your nomination form along with your registration by February 3, 2012, and describe how "This person" you are nominating helped you on your journey of recovery.
- "This Person" nomination form can be found on the backside of the summit registration form. (Employees of Recovery Innovations are not eligible for nomination).

Resource tables for community agencies and programs will be present for resource and networking opportunities.
