

Save the Date

Family & Consumer Co-Occurring Conference

Workshops will discuss the following topics concerning co-occurring disorders:

- Dual Diagnosis - When mental health and substance abuse collide
- Behaviors and Techniques to better support yourself and loved ones
- Collaborative Care – working with the your service providers
- Criminal Justice – Navigating the legal system with a co-occurring disorder

*Date: Wednesday, June 17, 2009
from 8:00 a.m.-4:00 p.m.*

- Free admission
- Continental Breakfast and Lunch provided
- Easy trolley access

Place:
Handlery Hotel
950 Hotel Circle N.
San Diego, CA 92108

Behavioral Health Education & Training Academy
6505 Alvarado Rd.
Suite 107
San Diego, CA 92120

Phone: 619-594-0923
Fax: 619-594-1118
E-mail: BHETA@projects.sdsu.edu

This conference is intended for consumers and families.

Behavioral Health Education & Training Academy is a County of San Diego Mental Health contracted program of the Academy for Professional Excellence, a project of the SDSU School of Social Work

