

Depression and Bipolar Support Alliance of San Diego

DBSA San Diego presents ...

Scott Stewart

A Primer on Public Benefits: From Social Security to Medi-Cal

Mr. Stewart will present a primer on public benefits – how to get the benefits as well as how to keep them. He'll have the answers to frequent questions like "What if my parents gift me some money – will it affect my SSI?" and "What will happen when my insurance runs out?" There will be plenty of time for questions and answers from the audience.

when Monday, 11 July 2011

6:00pm – 8:00pm

where Garren Auditorium
Biomedical Sciences Building
Medical School Campus
University of California, San Diego
La Jolla, California

Scott Stewart graduated from California Western School of Law in 1995. He is a member of the California Bar Association, San Diego County Bar Association, California Advocates for Nursing Home Reform, and the National Academy of Elder Law Attorneys. He is the incoming co-chair of the San Diego County Bar Association Elder Law section.

He has appeared as a regular guest on the Lawyer in Blue Jeans radio show. He conducts regular seminars and workshops on elder law topics in Southern California for caregiver support groups including: the Southern Caregiver Resource Association; the Parkinson's Disease Association; the George G. Glenner Alzheimer's Family Centers; and the Alzheimer's Association. He has also taught classes on Medi-Cal eligibility to discharge planners, nurses, and social workers at Sharp, Scripps, and Pomerado Hospitals as well as various in-home care providers, including LivHome. He has also presented to Elder Law Students at Thomas Jefferson School of Law in San Diego, and will be on Channel 10 (KGTV) news in February 2006.

His practice is devoted to estate planning, asset protection and retention, and elder law issues, including Medi-Cal benefit law. In this capacity he typically helps seniors qualify for Medi-Cal benefits while preserving their assets for themselves or their loved ones. He currently represents client throughout the state of California.

There is free parking in the VA San Diego Medical Center parking lot. Garren Auditorium is a short walk over the footbridge. Follow the signs for about one block. See the map on the reverse side for detailed directions. For information on parking with "Disabled Person" placards or license plates, visit the UCSD page <http://blink.ucsd.edu/facilities/transportation/permits/disabled.html> or see the map overleaf.

Walking Directions to Garren Auditorium

Follow the DBSA San Diego signs with the blue arrows along the way.

1. Start in the parking lot and walk to the bus stop in front of the VA San Diego Medical Center (usually called the VA Hospital in La Jolla).
2. Walk west to the covered outdoor corridor, turn right and walk down that corridor (along the western edge of the hospital) until you turn left when you get to the footbridge crossing Villa La Jolla Drive. Walk over that footbridge.
3. Continue walking past the Stein Clinical Research Building (on your right).
4. To avoid the construction area, follow the sidewalk right and then left where the fence ends, continuing toward the Medical Teaching Facility building.
5. Walk under the overhead walkway connecting the two parts of Medical Teaching Facility.
6. Continue walking until you reach the Biomedical Sciences Building.
7. Enter the large glass sliding doors and turn immediately left down a corridor, where there is a sign saying Garren Auditorium is in Room 1105.
8. Walk down the corridor, turning right, then left.
9. Garren Auditorium is down the first hallway to your left, Room 1105. You can enter at the bottom, where the lecturer is, or continue until you see a staircase going up on your right. This will take you to the top (back) of the auditorium.

Please note: The sliding glass doors to the Biomedical Sciences Building lock from the outside at 7:00pm, so please be sure to arrive before then.
